'Get cosy with a book!'

We wanted to extend our thanks for your incredible support during World Book Day. It was truly heartwarming to witness the enthusiasm and participation from both you and your children. A special thank you goes to Miss Baines for her outstanding efforts in organising the day and orchestrating the book swap. The children were thoroughly engaged and excited as they perused through the books, thanks to her meticulous planning. Your contributions in sending your child with a book for the swap played a significant role in making the day a resounding success. It's moments like these that highlight the strength of our community and the value we place on nurturing a love for reading. While World Book Day is a wonderful occasion, we also recognise the importance of prioritising reading on a daily basis. We are immensely grateful to those parents who have taken the initiative to increase home reading with their children and diligently sign their child's diary. The progress we've observed is very encouraging and speaks volumes about the impact of such dedication. For those who haven't yet explored the option of library membership, we encourage you to consider joining your local library. Their services are invaluable and could serve as a wonderful resource to further inspire your child's love for reading. Once again, thank you for your unwavering support.

Golden Ticket Event

As a staff, we extend our sincere appreciation to our dedicated FoWs partners for their invaluable support during World Book Day through the Golden Ticket competition. Anticipating demand can be challenging, yet we were thrilled by the overwhelming support received for this fundraiser. In response to the enthusiastic response, FoWs graciously extended the opportunity for additional purchases, ensuring all families could partake in the event's excitement. Their unwavering dedication to our school's success is commendable. We encourage everyone to express your gratitude and consider involvement in their commendable efforts.
